

This book is dedicated to my family.

To my late mother, Mary Davies, to record her never-failing love and devotion.

To my late father, Arthur Granville Davies, who passed on to me his appreciation of the beauties of mathematics and science.

To my wife, Joan, for love, patience, support, and inspiration.

To my children, Elizabeth, Sarah, and Marion, the music in my life.

To my grandchildren, Jasper, Jerome, Eva, and Tara, for constantly reminding me of the carefree joys of youth!
